

Review of Flinch

April 30th, 2019

Flinch for flute and horn is an innovative addition to the repertoire for this unique instrument combination. Its attention-grabbing rhythmic complexity and clever use of extended techniques make for an exciting performance for both listener and performer. With elements of jazz and popular styles, this evocative work features the wide range of skill and virtuosic capabilities of each instrument. This six-minute roller coaster is perfect to ensure audience engagement and diversify any program.
